

Instruction on the right of revocation

If the Student Contract is concluded by means of remote communication, you have the right to revoke a Student Contract without a statement of reasons: The period for revocation is 14 days from the date of the conclusion of the contract, i.e. from receipt of the contract countersigned by you, which you have sent to us by email (send date of the email).

To exercise the right of revocation, you have to inform the University at the address: University of Applied Sciences Europe GmbH, Dessauer Str. 3-5, 10963 Berlin, email: admissions@ue-germany.com by means of an unambiguous written declaration (e.g. by a letter or an email) of your decision to revoke this contract. For this purpose, you can use the sample revocation form, which we make available on our website at www.ue-germany.com (which, however, is not mandatory for use), or by means of another unambiguous declaration stating your complete address. To observe the revocation period, it is sufficient if you mail the notification of the exercise of the right of revocation before expiration of the revocation period.

Consequences of revocation

If you revoke this contract, we will repay the amount of the payment we have received from you without delay, at the latest within fourteen days from the date on which we have received your notice of the revocation of this contract. We will use the same payment instrument for this repayment, as the one that you have used in the original transaction, unless agreed otherwise with you. No fees will be charged for this repayment.

If you have used our services at your request during the revocation period, we shall be entitled to demand an appropriate amount as consideration, equalling the portion of the services already performed by this date on which you inform us of the exercise of the right of revocation regarding this contract, relative to the total scope of the services intended under the contract.
